

Moving to the New Way Up Forum

Introduction

It came as a surprise to us all earlier this Summer, none more so than Gaynor and her merry band of helpers, that Big Tent announced it was going to close as of 31st December 2018. To put it in a bit of context, Big Tent is the web site that Way Up, and lots of other community groups, use for their Discussion Forums and Events Planning.

Gaynor and her Little Pixies have been looking for alternatives to Big Tent that fulfil some very simple criteria. It must initially provide at least the same basic functions as Big Tent, it should be configurable so we can adjust it to suit our needs, and it should be free to use.

We have found one called Simple Machines Forum, but that doesn't really matter because we have been able to brand it as Way Up to give you that nice, warm feeling you're in the right place. And now we need to let you know how you can find your way the New Forum and Register.

Like Big Tent, the Simple Machines Forum package is designed to be used in a Web Browser. It seems to work well on Tablets and Mobile Phones, although it has a more restricted view, so you might miss some features that would be intuitive were you able to see the whole screen. If you have to use a phone, you may want to set your Browser to "Use Desktop Site" in settings.

We would strongly recommend that the Registration Process and your initial exploration of the Brave New World that is the New Way Up Forum are done on a proper "grown up" PC. This will, we are sure, minimise errors and maximise your chances of getting safely to our new home.

The Process

The move to the New Forum is in a number of stages. First you have to find the login page for the New Forum, then you have to Register, then you have to be Approved by Way Up Admin, then you will be able to Log In properly.

New Way Up Forum Log In Page

The Address of the New Way Up Forum is:-

<https://forum.way-up.co.uk>

Type this into the Address field of your favourite Web Browser (or copy and paste or click on the link if you are viewing this on a computer), and press Return. You may want to Bookmark this page, as this will be your way in to Way Up.

It should show something similar to this:-

Verification: This is needed to help ensure an automated system is not trying to register. It is case sensitive, so type it exactly as you see it. If you're not sure what is shown, you can click on the button to request another image.

Once that is completed, click the "Register" Button.

You will then (hopefully) get a Registration Successful screen as below.

Registration Successful

Thank you for registering. The admin must approve your registration before you may begin to use your account, you will receive an email shortly advising you of the admin's decision.

You will get an email acknowledging your registration request along these lines.

Your registration request at Way Up has been received, StuartMcTest.

The username you registered with was StuartMcTest. If you forget your password, you can change it at <https://forum.way-up.co.uk/index.php?action=reminder>.

Before you can login and start using the forum, your request will be reviewed and approved. When this happens, you will receive another email from this address.

Regards,
The Way Up Team.

Please be patient, we are only human and we are but few.

Activating Your New Way Up Forum User

Once the lovely Admin people have had a chance to Approve your Registration application, you will receive an email similar to this:-

Welcome, StuartMcTest!

Welcome to Way Up.

Your membership application has been approved. We hope that you will find us a friendly and supportive group.

On our forum - forum.way-up.co.uk - you can read posts by others and join in discussions when you are ready. A brief post introducing yourself would be nice but there is absolutely no pressure. Use the site as you need to - but joining in is the best way to feel part of things. Never think you have nothing to say or any comment is too trivial.

There are several discussion boards for you to explore. The Quiet Room is reserved for more quiet reflection and should be kept free from jokes and banter.

There is a calendar in which you can see upcoming events organised by the members and you will be able to register to attend any event that interests you, wherever it takes place, locally, regionally, nationally or internationally.

Please explore the site - just click the various tabs and buttons and see where they take you - it will not break! In the Frequently Asked Questions (FAQs) board you should find answers to most of your queries.

If you are still stuck, please email help@way-up.co.uk.

May we draw your attention to the Members Code of Conduct, which can be found in the Files board. In becoming a member, you have agreed to abide by this code.

We look forward to you joining our discussions and hope to meet you soon!

Your username is: StuartMcTest. If you forget your password, you can change it at <https://forum.way-up.co.uk/index.php?action=reminder>.

Best wishes,
The Way Up Team.

Get to the New Way Up Forum login page again, either by typing <https://forum.way-up.co.uk> or using the Bookmark you saved earlier, but this time enter the Username and Password that you set up on Registration.

Tick the "Always stay logged in:" box, otherwise you'll have to log back in every 60 minutes. Either that, or set the "Minutes to stay logged in" field to a different value.

This will then take you to the main Forum Page, where all sorts of new and wondrous goodies await your pleasure.

Welcome

The temptation will be to scoot off and investigate the Discussion Categories and Topics or the Calendar feature, but first of all it would be good to take some time out to set up your Profile. Click on the Profile Button.

The bottom half mainly contains data that you entered as part of your Registration process, but it does include the "Change Profile" button, which you must press if you have made any changes and want to save them.

Well, that's finished the Registration process. Welcome to the New Way Up Forum. Other documents will be made available to let you know how to use the system, but for now the last thing to tell you is how to log out.

Use the Logout Tab!

See you again soon. And don't forget – play nicely.
